

Who is eligible for assistance due to the COVID-19 economic fall out?

A Public Notice for Tourism Workers

A Public Notice for Tourism Workers

Have you recently been laid off from a hotel or tourism-related business?

Find out if you are eligible for assistance due to the COVID-19 economic fall out.

You can apply for unemployment assistance with the National Insurance Board and register at jobseekers.bahamas.gov.bs for job notifications from the Ministry of Labour.

- Download an unemployment form at www.nib-bahamas.com
- Submit the completed form with the necessary requirements to customerservice@nib-bahamas.com or govuea@nib-bahamas.com.
- Forms will be available on Thursday, March, 26, 2020

A Public Notice for Tourism Workers

Are you self-employed in the tourism industry?

Find out if you are eligible for assistance due to the COVID-19 economic fall out.

Straw vendors, hair braiders, taxi drivers, jet ski operators and other self-employed tourism workers who have lost their income because of the COVID-19 shut-down are eligible for a temporary Government-subsidized unemployment benefit through the National Insurance Board.

- Download an unemployment form at www.nib-bahamas.com
- Submit the completed form with the necessary requirements to customerservice@nib-bahamas.com or govuea@nib-bahamas.com.
- You must be registered with NIB or register at the time of application
- Forms will be available on Thursday, March, 26, 2020

A Public Notice for Tourism Workers

Have you been placed on reduced work weeks by your employer?

Find out if you are eligible for assistance due to the COVID-19 economic fall out.

The Department of Social Services can help with food vouchers and other forms of social support if you have been put on reduced weeks since March 1, 2020.

- Email a request for social assistance to socialservicesapp@bahamas.gov.bs
- In the email, include your date of birth, NIB number and a number you can be contacted at
- Attach a job letter indicating you are on reduced work hours, and a copy of your NIB card and Passport ID pages.

Workers who have been laid off or disengaged should make application to the National Insurance Board for an unemployment benefit.